CITY ANALYST'S LABORATORY,

Glasgow, 28th January, 1887.
I HAVE made a careful Analysis of a fair Sample of a Lot of about 5,000
Cases of the STIRLING BONDING COMPANY'S 'GAELIC WHISKY', ready for shipment to Hongkong. The sample was taken by myself on the 28th Instant from Bonded Store, where the cases were lying, and, from the results of my analysis,
I am of opinion that it is a PURE WHISKY of superior quality, which has been matured in Sherry Casks. The strength is about 45 degrees under proof.

We note the return here to-day in the Bok-hara of the Hon. T. Jackson, the popular chief manager of the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation. We believe the hon. gentleman will leave here to-morrow or shortly for Manila.

The prosecution against the opium dealer and the 128 men for being in possession of firearms has, as was anticipated, 'ended in smoke.' To-day, Mr. Mackenzie ordered the opium dealer, the only defendant left, to be discharged, and the option to be given up. We believe the opium was returned yesterday, and the firearms were given up to-day.

Shortly after two o'clock this afternoon, it was made apparent to people on this side of the harbour by a huge volume of smoke that fire had broken out in Messrs Blackhead & Co.'s newly-constructed godowns at Tsim Sha Tsui Point. There was an immediate expedition of launches to the scene of the fire, and it was then seen that the flames had obtained a powerful hold of the shed and its contents. How the fire originated is not known. Some hazard the opinion that it was due to spontaneous combustion, but we think it is much more likely to have arisen from actual contact with fire. However, that may be, the workmen who were employed in the shed at the time can give no explanation of its origin. All that they know is that the flames spread with astonishing rapidity, the wood roof and supports of the shed affording excellent fuel; a cargo of lumber, too, which had been loaded from the Hayward Kidder being consumed by the devouring element with remarkable swiftness. A portion of the wood fence which surrounded the shed was also destroyed. Luckily the wind was blowing from an easterly direction, or the wharf connected with the shed might also have fallen a prey to the flames. The brig Swan, which was lying alongside, made every preparation to cast off from the wharf as soon as the outbreak was apparent, but as no danger was imminent remained at her berth; her crew rendering whatever assistance was in their power in the work of extinguishing the flames. Very little could be done in this direction with the inadequate means at their command. Unfortunately, as too often happens, the means on which we rely to combat fires of this class, was in the hands of the 'doctor,' and it was at least two hours after the fire commenced before she was ready for work. The Stanley, the auxiliary floating fire engine, was also out of order, and like the Firmans had to be towed to Tsim Sha Tsui by Messrs Blackhead & Co.'s launch. Long before either of these launches had arrived, however, a steam launch from the Victor Emanuel had been doing good work. Ultimately, a good force of water was brought into play on the burning mass, and before five o'clock the fire was thoroughly subdued. We have not been able to learn the extent of the damage, but it must be considerable. There were from 6,000 to 7,000 tons of coal stored in the shed as well as stock of general stores, including some tinned meats and Flensburg beer, and a goodly quantity of these have been destroyed. The property is insured, if not wholly at least partially, and we believe the China Fire Insurance Co. has a small risk on the structure. Mr. Wedderhouse, the Superintendent of the Fire Brigade; Mr. Brewer, Assistant Superintendent; Commodore Morant and Captain Dempster were present soon after the fire broke out and took part in directing operations. This fire illustrates, we think, the necessity of having a steam fire engine stationed at Yau-ma Tei or Tsim Sha Tsui, the latter for preference. Of course it might not have been possible to take a steam engine along to the fire this afternoon, as Messrs Blackhead's property is rather inaccessible from the roads of Kowloon; but the need for having some such means of protecting the very valuable properties which now extend from Yau-ma Tei to Tsim Sha Tsui is apparent. Especially is such a thing wanted in the event of the floating fire engine being out of order.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—The Canadian Pacific Railway Company proposes to carry a mail service between Liverpool and Brisbane, with a branch service to Fiji and New Zealand. The projected contract will be either a 20, 30, or 32 days' service, and the subsidy required is not to exceed that paid to the P. and O. Company for the same route. The company has been asked to quote a rate for the service to be in Sydney.

The following is Dod's record of Mr. John Kynaston Cross, whose death by suicide is reported in the Canton telegrams.—Cross, John Kynaston (Bolton) eldest s. of the late John Cross, Esq., of Garfield House, Bolton, by Hannah only d. of the late Richard Kynaston, Esq., of Bolton. B. 1832; m. 1858. Emily, d. of the late Jam. A. Carlton, Esq., of Manchester. Is a cotton spinner at Bolton. A Magistrate for Bolton. Appointed Under-Secretary for India, Jan. 1883 (salary £1,000). A Radical; in favour of Ireland having extended to full all privileges enjoyed by England, while opposing any measure tending to the integration of the Empire. Has sat for Bolton since Feb. 1874—19. Elected an S. W. Reform and Devonshire Clubs; Fern-clough, Bolton.

The gentleman referred to in the following paragraph takes from the L. & C. G. E. the late sub-editor of the N. O. D. From Mr. Lionel F. Gowing, who is a self-styled plodder, his way across the Atlantic waters from the far eastern shores of China to Europe, arrived at Tientsin on the 10th ult., in company with one companion, travelling with him from Shanghai. The young Englishman had up to the time traversed about 3,000 miles of country from Vladivostok, and had been fifty days on the journey. From Tientsin they travelled by rail to Peking, and then by rail to Yankow, and thence by rail to Tientsin. From Tientsin they take the rail across the Great Mountains to Elsenberg and Peking.

From Peking to Nijl Norgorod they travel again by sledges, and then by rail to Moscow, and on to St. Petersburg, Warsaw, Berlin, Corbinburg, &c. The whole distance of the journey is about 5,000 miles, and they will have changed horses at over 300 stations.

The Army and Navy Gazette says.—The Cordillia was hurried away from Portsmouth at last with little consideration for the feelings of the married men and their relations. However, that was perhaps to be expected, even in these times of peace. But surely no excuse can be made for sending her away with the two old spinnings which were hoisted out a few days ago, but which it is stated are replaced, as the new gun sent down from Woolwich were found at the last moment unfitted for the carriage in which they were to have been mounted. Rather an awkward manner of what would happen if any emergency demanded that the Cordillia should be sent to sea. The Cordillia will call at Madeira, St. Vincent, the Cape, and visit the various islands between that place and Australia (to see if survivors of shipwrecked crews are on any of them). From Amsterdam she goes to the Straits of Sundra and on to Singapore, where she should arrive about the middle of June.

REGIMENTAL ATHLETIC SPORTS.—(Under the patronage of Major-General W. C. Cameron, C.B.) Committee.—Major W. T. Ellis, Captain J. Collinson, Major R. J. Chaytor, Lieut. M. D. Graham, and Lieut. G. A. Bramwell. Sub-committee.—Sergeant-Major Hill, Colonel Kendrick, Colonel-Sergeant Crowley, Sergeant Everett, and Lance-Sergeant Brown.

The Athletic Sports of the 58th Regiment were held on the Cricket Ground this afternoon. The weather was very warm in the sun, but the heat did not much to affect the competitors, who threw themselves with great ardour into the sports. During the afternoon H. E. the Acting Governor and Mrs. Marsh, Major-General Cameron, the Misses Cameron and a large number of ladies and gentlemen were among the spectators. The band of the Regiment, under Bandmaster Moran, played a large number of popular tunes during the afternoon; and a band of Minstrels was a never-failing source of amusement.

Among the most amusing and attractive parts of the programme were the obstacle race, and the sack race. Towards the close of the afternoon the tugs of war absorbed all the interest. The crack team of the R.A. carried everything before them, and the officers of the Regiment had the satisfaction of beating a pretty strong team from the Hongkong Club, despite the enthusiastic manner the Club team was offered by Mr. W. Legge.

THE ARREST OF AN IRISH PRISONER.
London, March 20.—A Mr. John Kelly, a priest of Foulis, has been arrested for refusing to give evidence in the Dublin District Court against a defendant. On his way to Dublin in custody the prisoner was everywhere received with ovations and public demonstrations of sympathy and favour. The Dublin police violently investigated against the arrest in the House of Commons last night, and accused the Government of wilful oppression in order to bring about a state of affairs that will justify coercion. The Right Hon. Mr. Balfour emphatically repelled this charge, and declared that the Plan of Campaign was solely answerable for the agitation and disorder in Ireland.

London, March 20.—Father Keller, refusing to answer the questions of the Court, was yesterday committed to prison for contempt. He was escorted to jail, in charge of a strong guard, by immense crowds of people.

SPICIAL ASSAULT ON A MAGISTRATE AT KANDY.

Kandy, March 22d, 3-10 p.m.—There is much stir here owing to a Magistrate being assaulted by a mob of 500 persons who had been committed for six months for resisting the police. As the Magistrate was coming to Court, Jones levelled a blow on his head with a club. The blow lighted on his neck; if it had fallen on his skull, the result would have been fatal. The mob took to flight. The attack was premeditated, and prisoner admitted the assault. He was under the effects of liquor all last night, and assaulted complainant in previous cases. Further proceedings on the sixth.

The Conditi, a schooner, Captain Boys, and the Calicut, a schooner, Captain Kays, having had defects made good, left Plymouth Sound for the China Station, via the Cape, the former on the 20th ult. and the latter on the 1st inst.

At the Conference Hall, Midway-park, last evening, the Rev. J. Hudson Taylor, who has just returned from China, received a cordial welcome. In giving some account of the mission work he said that the last two years had been a time of greater spiritual blessing than any other he could remember. Mr. Taylor has been in China for thirty-four years, and we understand will return thither shortly. He is one of the moving spirits in the China Inland Mission, having been, indeed, one of the founders of that organisation.

Hamburg, March 1.—Favoured by the fine weather, the trade on the river has yielded better results, but, as far as is to be seen, it is not so good as last year. Our communication with the Far East has comprised the Denbighshire, s.s., Gunning, arrived from Japan; Asia, s.s., Hartmann, from Calcutta, &c.; and Bona-fide, s.s., Nielsen, from Hongkong. The Electric, s.s., Madson, sailed on the 22nd ult. The vessels on the berth for the Far East are the Amaranth, Morisse, for Hongkong; Niebo, s.s., to leave 10th inst.; Epiphany, s.s., to leave 20th inst., all three being Kingman Lines, for their usual route to Penang, Singapore, Hongkong, and Japan; the Denbighshire, s.s., Gunning, to leave 10th inst., and Vermetshire, s.s., Dutton, to leave 25th inst., both for Singapore, Hongkong, and Japan, via Antwerp; Deer, s.s. (Swedish line), to leave 10th inst. for her usual route; Alas, s.s., Wolf, to leave 15th inst., and Triumph, s.s., to leave at the beginning of April, both for Vladivostok and the Amoor river.

The letter from a correspondent, 'E. Yettie', which we give in our Correspondence columns, will no doubt be perceived by our readers with the attention that the importance of the subject commands. The matter he discusses is a very delicate one to approach, and it is very difficult to get at the bottom of it. Politics are so absorbing that it is not surprising that interest to trade are left to shift for themselves. Without passing any opinion on our own, the general tenor of the letter, we can hardly allow our remarks to pass without reference. We allude to the paragraph in which our correspondent alludes to German settlers in Hong Kong and Singapore. The course he suggests is hardly consistent with the Free Trade principles which he himself advocates. We have had from this, we have had many excellent allusions amongst our Tanton brothers in both Hong Kong and Singapore, and though some of the more thrifty ones have out into the larger profits which used to be made, it is absurd to say that with the same brush. Some of the older and larger houses were established shortly after their English competitors, and have been marked by as much liberality, in a mercantile and social way, as has so long characterised most houses in the Far East.

The victory of the Ling Kwang has rightly or wrongly acquired a certain celebrity as one of the leading officials of China. Certain it is that he holds one of the most important posts in the Empire, and to which high officials aspire. His claims to eminence appear to rest, however, on one really important act, the seafaring denunciation he poured out on the unfortunate Chung-How, the negotiator of the Livadia Treaty with Russia, and on the discount which China Chi-tung's memory is a forcible and energetic, and nearly cost the unkind Chung-How his head. As a victor at Canton, however, he does not appear to have been unfortunate with either native officials or foreigners, and has kept his post more or less in a formidably quiet way, whilst current business is reported to be neglected and behind time. Seeing this our Canton correspondent sarcastically suggests whether he did not find his celebrated memorial ready made by some one else. A telegram was received on the 3rd inst. from Paris, stating:—'A despatch from Shanghai received here asserts that China has ceded the Chusan Islands to Germany.' This is most probably an error, though what appears to be a correct source. The cession will be remembered, is under the protection of Great Britain, in virtue of the Convention between Great Britain and China of April 4, 1860, signed by Sir John Davis and Commissioner K. King. Clauses 3 and 4 of this agreement read:—

It is stipulated, on the part of His Majesty the Emperor of China, that on the evacuation of Chusan by Her Britannic Majesty's forces, the said island shall never be ceded to any other foreign Power.

'Her Britannic Majesty's consent, upon her part, in case of the attack of an invader, to protect Chusan and its dependencies, and to restore it to the possession of China as of old; but as this stipulation proceeds from the friendly alliance between the two nations, no pecuniary subsidies are to be done from China on this account.'

It will readily be conceded that it was 'not desirable in the interests of the public service to give details of the work' with reference to supplying the guns for Singapore. The kernel of the question is, as regards both Hongkong and Singapore, that the Treasury will not vote the money fast enough, and that, with the large demand for ordnance on all sides, the existing establishments cannot take them out fast enough. It is to be hoped we shall not get 'caught' ere we have got all we want for the navy and for the various shore defences.

The letter on the present condition of travelling on P. and O. steamers will no doubt bring the sentiments of many of our readers. It is by attention to minor details, which our correspondent points out, that life on board an ocean-going vessel is rendered so pleasant in the present day, and so enjoyable compared with the manner of travelling in the past.

Our correspondent, experienced only a few years ago. From personal experience, however, the writer can vouch for the comfort of having the benefit of the power to turn one's electric light in the cabin off or on at will. It is a suggestion that is worth noting. It is one of those comparatively trivial things—as in ordinary life—which add so much to general comfort. We presume the electric light has to run all night, and passengers as well as the engine room may have the advantage. Our correspondent hardly brings out the fact that the missing arrangements are far superior to what they were. We may point out in the matter of second saloon passengers the company are spending something like £50,000 to bring the requirements up to a high standard of comfort. The whole system is altered, as one of the officers of the ship will always reside at this mess. We may also mention, in connection with the P. and O., that the directors are considering four ships of nearly 7,000 tons, which will be capable of maintaining 17 knots at sea.
